BUILDING STRONG COMMUNITIES

The Center for Community Building (CCB) is a Harrisburg-based private, nonprofit agency for community transportation. Since its founding in 1997, CCB's mission has been to provide transportation to those in the community who need help with traveling to and from locations where and when transportation is lacking or nonexistent.

CCB provides its services in an efficient and dependable manner and with the utmost sensitivity towards the human needs of consumers.

Currently, CCB provides work related and non-emergency medical transportation services, and undertakes a variety of transportation-related services for consumers of other agencies under contractual arrangements.
